

THE DAILY BULLETIN

PUBLISHED BY J. W. ROBERTSON & CO.

No. 61.

HONOLULU, H. I., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 1882.

THE DAILY BULLETIN
Is published every morning, and circulated throughout the town, and forwarded to the other islands by every opportunity.
Subscription, - 25 cents per month.

THE DAILY BULLETIN.
The superior advantages of the DAILY BULLETIN as an advertising medium, will readily be understood by business men, and by all who have occasion to make public their occupation or their requirements, for our issue is in demand in every store, shop and dwelling house in the city. The public ear is caught by the BULLETIN each morning instead of once a week.

We shall, with our increased size of four pages, in place of two, give a larger space to local matters of interest, as well as commercial items; and, during the sessions of the Legislature, soon to commence, we propose to give in each issue a resume of the previous day's proceedings.

We intend, with the facilities, in the shape of material, now on the way hither, to make the BULLETIN a permanent institution, and shall spare no pains to render it a necessity to every business man and every household in the community.

His Excellency M. S. Nagasaki, the Japanese Envoy and suite, leave to-day for San Francisco via Hilo, by the s.s. Ceylon. During his stay here, Mr. Nagasaki has received every courtesy and attention, both from the King and Government, and in private circles, which his official position and his gentlemanly bearing as well entitled him to. By the same steamer Mons. Ratard and lady take the departure for that gentleman's future residence at Havana, the capital of the "Queen of the Antilles." Mr. Ratard, during his residence here, in his official and private intercourse with our people, has made many friends, whose good wishes accompany the newly wedded pair on their voyage.

By way of New Zealand, it is announced that Queen Victoria has given her assent to the Colonial Act restricting Chinese immigration.
